

Called to...

Obey

How good are you at obeying instructions or rules?

Because of both my mother and father I have strong German ancestry. When we travelled to Germany in 2007 I noticed how obedient the people were when crossing the street. Even when there were no cars coming and it was safe to cross, until the 'ampelmann' (green walk man) lit up no one crossed the road. For some of us obeying an instruction, request or even command can be challenging. We can think or say, "I know what I'm doing, I know what's best, you don't have to tell me what to do." Is this how it is for you and your relationship with God?

This Sunday we will hear the story of Simon in Luke 5:1-11 and reflect on his response to Jesus calling him. This story forms Simon's testimony in how Jesus called him to follow and revealed God's goodness to him.

Every week in our Communicator I will be asking various people from our congregation to share their story of how Jesus has called them and/or revealed God's goodness to them.

So watch this space!
