

Welcome to Worship at Elanora Uniting Church 13 September 2020

This Sunday our Philippians sermon series focuses on the last few verses of Chapter 1 into Chapter 2. My NIV has this section titled “Life Worthy of the Gospel.” Now there’s a challenge in one phrase. Is our life worthy of the Gospel? Does our life reflect the Gospel? What does that even look like? I encourage us all if we haven’t had the chance yet to read all of Chapter 1 and Chapter 2.

Are you counting the times ‘joy’ appears? This is a key word for Paul as he writes to his friends in Philippi. Also, did you get to write a letter/card to a friend? Did you feel joy in writing it and sending it? Australia Post is not delivering as frequently as they once did, so it might take a while for your friend to receive it, but I can imagine the joy they will have in receiving your note of care, thought and prayer. We are blessed to be a blessing to others. Thank you.

Quick note from the minister

Thank you to everyone who has implemented or is implementing Covid Industry Plans onsite. This is no small task but is critical in keeping our place safe as we care for our community with Christ. There are several people within our congregation who, if they picked up Covid-19 in their system, are at high risk of having serious delays in recovery or might not even recover. Since this virus is highly contagious, we continue to care for each other by following the health guidelines.

I know it is difficult to continue being vigilant in keeping 1.5m and washing hands, but this is really important for us to maintain. It only takes one case for things to go haywire. As you arrive and leave for worship please be sensitive to the people around you and allow plenty of space for others to arrive and take their seat. For the Worship Covid plan the windows/doors need to remain open. So please come prepared with a jumper in case it is cool.

Thank you for your understanding and support in loving one another as God loves us.
