

Welcome to Worship at Elanora Uniting Church

11th October 2020

Today, we welcome
ROSS FRASER-SMITH
to the pulpit.

Ross was born in China as his parents were missionaries there for 20 years, and they returned to Australia when Ross was six. His father was then called to ministries in Baptist churches in NSW. Ross taught Maths and Science in public and private schools for over 40 years and then (in his retirement?!!) Ross and his wife Margaret started their own tutoring business in Palm Beach and Robina. They were married in this church 18 years ago and were members here for 13 years. More recently, they have been in membership at Tallebudgera UC. Ross has recently completed a Lay-Preachers course at Trinity College to assist churches in a preaching ministry as well as continuing in church music ministry.
